Hello Don:

Here is an example of how we can help, even though this particular doctor doesn't write much OxyContin any longer.

Tom asked me for information on this doctor during our meeting.

That Tom will be familiar with the pharmacy, plus the notes that this doctor prescribes a lot of Norco for worker's comp patients – hopefully will be helpful for Tom's evaluations.

Most of the time we do a lot of this communication verbally.

Best regards,

Jack

Excerpts from Note from April 7, 2010 - when the original OxyContin formulation was on the market. (Please bear in mind that these come from a field sales rep).

.....description of [REDACTED] patient population and his use of B&B Pharmacy (B&B Pharmacy, Gemmel Phcy Inc, 10244 Rosecrans Avenue, Bellflower, CA 90706). Apparently, [REDACTED] has a fair number of workman's comp patients.

"Dr. [REDACTED] is a pain management/ORS with offices in [REDACTED], who uses this pharmacy daily for his workers comp patients. He is the Number One prescriber in my territory. He utilizes all strengths of OxyContin and is not a physician of concern. However, his nurse has mentioned that they send almost all of their worker's comp cases to B&B because the pharmacy helps process the authorizations."

I seem to recall that we had conversations about B&B at our OMS Committee meetings.

I'll keep digging.

Best regards,

Jack

Hello Tom:

It was great to see you on Tuesday in Westlake and spend extra time with you at dinner. I am sorry for the snafu that resulted in us being late for the meeting.

[REDACTED] DEA registration expired on June 30, 2011. His DEA number is [REDACTED]. We have access to a DEA database with the names of the registrants. I obtained Dr. [REDACTED] number from that database and the IMS database. They are the same-- [REDACTED]

No Purdue sales representatives call on [REDACTED] in Los Angeles, California.

If the doctor's name is [REDACTED] Purdue has been calling on him for years. Attached is Dr. [REDACTED] prescription history - and the prescribing data for [REDACTED] for the last six months.

It seems as though he writes a lot of Norco.

In 2010, Betsy asked about another [REDACTED] California. His first name was [REDACTED]

I can get the call notes on Dr. [REDACTED] and comments from the sales representative if you'd like.

Please let me know what more you need.

Best regards,

Jack
